

THE READER'S DIGEST
PLEASANTVILLE • NEW YORK

30 January 1958

Dear Mr. Dulles:

Of course I am disappointed that The Reader's Digest is not permitted to publish your answers to my questions, but I am sure that, as Col. Grogan explained to me on the phone, you have excellent reasons for your decision.

It was a pleasure and a privilege to have the conversation with you. If, at any time, any of us here at the Digest can be of any service to you, you have only to call on me.

With my thanks for the interview again, and with all best regards,

Sincerely,

Paul Palmer
